Just like the professionals we serve, NAADAC is evolving. NAADAC has purchased a new home that reflects the depth, range and maturity of our vision and the services we offer. Our new home now serves as a permanent world headquarters and will help us achieve our vision as "the premier global organization of addiction-focused professionals who enhance the health and recovery of individuals, families and communities."

Mel Schulstad (founder of NAADAC) and Tom Van Wagner (friend and supporter) will serve as co-chairs for the building donation campaign. Mel and Tom believe that NAADAC's new headquarters will serve as a center for creative energy in the addictions community and will reach out through a stronger voice to help addiction-focused professionals and the individuals, families and communities that they serve.

"Addictions Counseling has now matured and taken a recognized position as a profession. Part of the maturing is leaving a legacy to the next generation who will carry the profession of addictions counseling. It is to this effort that we have not just purchased a building, but leave a legacy for them to

from and upon." - NAADAC President-Elect, Donald P. Osborn.

This is the legacy we want to leave for the next generation of addiction professionals – a place to grow! Please join us by taking the next step!
