The NAADAC, National Certification Commission (NCC), is looking for qualified candidates to fill several Commissioner positions. Any NAADAC member with a valid national credential through the NCC (NCAC I, NCAC II, MAC or TAS are acceptable) and expertise in certain clinical areas are encouraged to apply by August 31, 2006.

The NCC operates as an independent body for all matters involving NAADAC's alcohol and drug abuse counselor certification and endorsement opportunities at the national level. The thirteen member Commission is responsible for ensuring that NADAC's national credentials maintain the highest achievable standards and accurately reflect the most up-to-date, science-based research. The NCC also provides professional development opportunities and specialty endorsements to help addiction counselors continue to advance in the profession.

The NCC is looking for qualified candidates to fill vacancies on the Commission. Each Commissioner serves a three-year term and is required to attend two bi-annual meetings, participate in five conference calls a year, and serve on one of the following subcommittees related to the profession's current needs:

- Criminal Justice
- Adolescents
- Faith-based Approaches
- International
- Credential Bibliography
- Policies and Procedure

If you are interested in serving, please contact your Regional Vice President to facilitate the application process and send your resume and cover letter to
