GENERAL INFORMATION

Applications will be judged on originality, perceived interest and need, quality of submission, objectives and references. An effort to balance the conference program will also be a consideration in the selection process. Recognizing the advanced level of attendees, presentations should be addressed to a post-certification level audience.

Individuals may not send more than two submissions for the Committee to evaluate.

To show our appreciation for presenters' contributions to the educational content of the conference, CAADAC/NAADAC will grant a 25% discount on conference registration fees for each primary presenter chosen. CAADAC/NAADAC will not underwrite any other travel expenses or food for presenters.

If chosen to present at CAADAC/ NAADAC 2006, the presenter agrees to prepare a paper to be included in a compendium of papers which will be distributed to each participant at the annual conference. It will also be available for sale. Presenters fully agree to grant the Addiction Professional Magazine and NAADAC News, first publication rights for one year following the presentation.
