About NAADAC

NAADAC, The Association for Addiction Professionals, is the largest membership organization serving addiction counselors, educators and other addiction-focused health care professionals, who specialize in addiction prevention, treatment and education. With 11,000 members and 46 state affiliates, NAADAC's network of addiction professionals spans the United States and the world. NAADAC's members work to create healthier families and communities through prevention, intervention and quality treatment.

NAADAC's members are powerful advocates on the front lines, providing care every day to those facing addiction. NAADAC's members provide treatment in a variety of settings: private and public treatment centers, hospitals, private practice and community-based behavioral health agencies.

Increase the visibility of your organization

NAADAC membership increases your organization's exposure to 11,000 individual NAADAC members and the thousands of addiction and related professionals who turn to NAADAC for news, information, professional development and conferences.

Organizational members of NAADAC are listed in every issue of NAADAC's bimonthly magazine, Addiction Professional, which has a circulation of nearly 25,000, as well as in NAADAC's annual conference program.

Organizational members are featured in the NAADAC News, the association's bimonthly publication, upon activation of membership. Articles include a description of the organization's services and complete contact information.

Organizational members receive a free listing on the NAADAC website, including a link to their website (if available), allowing everyone visiting www.naadac.org immediate and convenient access to its members. NAADAC's website received almost a quarter of a million visits in 2005.

Organizational members receive a plaque, which can be prominently displayed to publicize membership in NAADAC, the only organization that is both a professional association and credentialing body for addiction professionals.

Access new tools and techniques for quality client care

NAADAC offers the organizational member a discount rate for your organization's staff to attend the NAADAC annual conference and the public policy conference, where your staff will hear from practitioners with the latest information, skills and know-how to provide effective treatment services and quality patient care.

Your organization will also receive the organizational member discount rate on all NAADAC publications such as The Basics of Addiction Counseling: A Desk Reference and Study Guide, which is used by experienced professionals and as a guidebook for credentialing examination preparation, as well as reduced rates on NAADAC independent study courses (excluding the DOT SAP course).

Keep up-to-date on today's crucial topics

As a NAADAC organizational member you will have access to up-to-date information concerning addiction treatment issues through:

- Addiction Professional, the official NAADAC magazine
- NAADAC News, NAADAC's bi-monthly publication
- NAADAC's web site at www.naadac.org

All of these sources provide invaluable guidance on the art and science of addiction counseling, national and state legislative news and educational materials. Your organization will receive five (5) free issues of each publication to share with your staff, and unlimited access to the NAADAC website at www.naadac.org
