

Need to fill a position in your agency or educational program? NAADAC's Career Center is the place to go.

Your career ads will reach NAADAC members and a professional mailing list of 25,000 professionals. That is almost a third of the 80,000 addiction counselors, educators and other addiction-focused health care professionals that the Department of Labor estimates work in the United States.

NAADAC members are addiction counselors, educators and other addiction-focused health care professionals, who specialize in addiction prevention, treatment, recovery support and education. An important part of the healthcare continuum, NAADAC members and its 44 state affiliates work to create healthier individuals, families and communities through prevention, intervention, quality treatment and recovery support.

Launched in March 1998, the Career Classifieds contains professional job opportunities which are listed on the NAADAC website.

Tips for Job Ads

A successful recruitment campaign begins with a well-written job posting that stands out from all the other openings. It dually sells what you have to offer as an employer while showcasing your current job opening.

Please include the title of the position being advertised, the name of the agency with the job opening, the location of the agency, a description of the position's responsibilities and duties and how applicants can apply.

Send us your ad copy today for this unique way to get qualified applicants for your job opportunities.
