Recognition and Awards Nomination

The Advocate of the Year award is given to an individual who has demonstrated continuous dedication in supporting the addiction workforce. Named after Harold E. Hughes, an Iowa governor, United States senator, and lifelong advocate for treatment, research and recovery, this award is presented in recognition of outstanding public advocacy for addiction professionals and the clients they serve.

A completed award nomination form and nomination letter explaining why the individual is deserving of the award must be received by January 15, 2023, for consideration by the NAADAC Awards Committee.

Nominator: Please sign the following acknowledgment statement:

I acknowledge the nominee indicated above has met all the criteria for the Award and have demonstrated to the satisfaction of one's peers full compliance and support of NAADAC's Code of Ethics throughout my professional career.

Nominator Signature: _____ Date: _____

Please email completed form and other application materials to Kristin Hamilton, JD, NAADAC Director of Communications, on or before January 15, 2023, at khamilton@naadac.org.
