

ENGAGEMENT IN THE BLACK COMMUNITY

A VIRTUAL NAADAC SUMMIT

February 24 - 25, 2022

– OUR SPEAKERS –

ANTHONY ANDREWS,
PHD, LCMHC-S, LCAS,
CRC

TRAVIS S. ANDREWS,
PHD, LCMHC-S,
LPCC, CRC

JACQUELINE BATTALORA, PHD

BRANDON JONES,
MA

RENATA L. NERO,
PHD

– SESSIONS AND PANEL DISCUSSIONS –

This summit will include sessions and panel discussions featuring prominent industry professionals speaking on critical issues in the Black community relevant to treatment and recovery. Earn 8 CEs live or 6.5 CEs on-demand!

Sessions and panel discussions include:

- Using Cultural Intelligence to Advance Treatment in the African American Community
- Changing the Conversation on Criminal Justice Reforms Through Activism and Advocacy Panel Discussion
 - Trauma Reformed Care: Addressing Trauma & Addiction in the Black Community
- Deconstructing the Myths and Addressing the Realities of Suicidal Behavior in the African American Community
- Black Professionals in Excellence: Overcoming Barriers by Stepping into Our Professional Growth Panel Discussion
 - Going Back to Go Forward

REGISTER FOR FREE TODAY!*

Please note while the summit is free to attend, non-members must pay to receive CEs. NAADAC members can earn CEs for free!*

LEARN MORE AT WWW.NAADAC.ORG/ENGAGEMENT-IN-THE-BLACK-COMMUNITY-SUMMIT