

ELIZABETH KIDD

Ekidd93@gmail.com

(214) 533-9857

EDUCATION

The University of Denver	Master of Arts, Counseling Psychology Concentration: Clinical Mental Health Counseling 7 Specializing in addictions	Anticipated June
The University of Texas at Austin	Bachelor of Business Administration, Marketing	May 2015

CLINICAL TRAINING EXPERIENCE

Progressive Therapy Systems – Intern; Denver, CO Fall 2016 – Present

- Serve as a co-therapist for group counseling sessions with court mandated sex offenders that focus on anger management, denial, victim empathy, transitioning into society, and safety plans
- Meet with supervisor one hour/week for a face-to-face supervisory conference to enhance my skills as a counselor
- Conduct individual counseling sessions with court mandated sex offenders
- Conduct and write mental health evaluations

Dakota Ridge High School – Practicum Student; Littleton, CO Winter 2016 – Spring 2016

- Conducted individual counseling sessions with high school students on areas such as drug use and academic success
- Met with supervisor one hour/week for a face-to-face supervisory conference to enhance my skills as a counselor
- Observed school counselors in individual counseling sessions with students
- Attended counseling department staff meetings weekly

Counseling and Educational Services Clinic – Clinic Student; Denver, CO Winter 2016 – Spring 2016

- Conducted couples and individual counseling sessions with supervision from a licensed psychologist and received feedback from masters and doctoral students
- Administered couples and individual intakes
- Observed individual and couples counseling sessions through video with a live observation team comprised of masters and doctoral students
- Wrote a SOAP (subjective, objective, assessment, plan) Note at the end of every session for documentation
- Provided feedback for other students' counseling sessions via an Observation Feedback Form

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Relationship and Psychotherapy Lab Fall 2015 – Present

Contributes to the enhancement and understanding of couples' relationship functioning and develops a deeper understanding of the factors related to therapeutic effectiveness

- Gathering participants to conduct the experiment portion of the study, Romantic Betrayal and Sacrifice Poster proposal, Workplace Romance and Employee Engagement, was selected for presentation in the Society for Counseling Psychology (Division 17) programming for the 2016 APA meeting in Denver, CO
- Conducted a literature review for Workplace Romance and Employee Engagement

MEMBERSHIPS

NAADAC Minority Fellowship Program for Addiction Counselors

- Complete six required educational webinars having to do with addiction counseling
- Attend the NAADAC Annual Conference in September 2017 in Denver, CO
- Create an Individual Fellow Development Plan

- Honor agreement to provide six months addiction counseling services to minority populations

Member of the American Psychological Association

Member in good standing of the Jurisprudence Exam (September 2016)

CERTIFICATIONS

Certified Mandated Reporter in the state of Colorado

OTHER TRAINING EXPERIENCE

Tutor Doctor – Private Tutor; Denver, CO

Summer 2016 – Present

Provides one-on-one, in-home tutoring services to students of all ages

- Tutor a 15-year-old male with Asperger's Syndrome in math and reading one hour per week
- Tutor a 9-year-old male in math and reading one hour per week

VOLUNTEER AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Colorado Muslim Society

April 16, 2016

Serves Islam and Muslims by providing religious, educational, and cultural programs for men, women, and youth

- Provided free individual counseling to members of the Colorado Muslim Society who volunteered to receive mental health services

Austin Stone Community Church

New York City mission trip

March 16-22, 2014

- Created space for open dialogues with Muslims to increase cross-religion communication and understanding
- Participated in daily bible studies with a team of 10 people

AWARDS

Dean's Scholarship

Awarded to students in the Clinical Mental Health Counseling concentration at the University of Denver

University Honors

For outstanding scholastic performance in the Spring 2014 and Fall 2014 at the University of Texas

SKILLS

ReliaTrax and CWISE for counseling session documentation

SOAP (Subjective, Objective, Assessment, Plan) notes for counseling session documentation

REFERENCES

Cindy Jamison, L.C.S.W.

Counseling Psychology Supervisor

Progressive Therapy Systems

cjamison@progressivetherapysystems.com

(303) 831-9344

Joseph Longo, Ph.D.

Adjunct Professor

University of Denver

Joseph.Longo@du.edu

(303) 328-8269

Trisha Raque-Bogdan

Assistant Professor, Counseling Psychology

University of Denver

Trisha.Raque-Bogdan@du.edu

(303) 871-4522