Learning Objectives

- Gain an understanding of an integrative perspective of patterns and roles that reinforce trauma over generations in families with addiction – and what you can do to change it.

- Visually and experientially demonstrate how patterns and roles occur in families with addiction and how these patterns contribute to addiction across generations.

- Learn how families and individuals can start the process of healing by reframing the past narrative and opening and inspiring future choices for each individual.
Questions

Contact
Mackenzie Phillips, RADT-1
Mackenzie.Phillips@BreatheLHC.org
www.BreatheLifeHealingCenters.com