Heterosexual Questionnaire

1. What do you think caused your heterosexuality?
2. When and how did you decide that you were a heterosexual?
3. Is it possible that your heterosexuality is just a phase that you may grow out of?
4. Is it possible that your heterosexuality stems from a neurotic fear of the same sex?
5. If you've never slept with a person of the same sex, is it possible that you need a good lesbian or gay lover? How can you be sure that you won't like it if you haven't tried it?
6. Why do heterosexuals feel compelled to seduce others into their lifestyle?
7. Do your friends know that you are heterosexual? How did they react?
8. Do your parents know about your heterosexual lifestyle?
9. Why do you insist on flaunting your heterosexual lifestyle — can't you just be who you are and keep it quiet? Why must we hear about your spouse or watch you hold hands or kiss in public?
10. Why do heterosexuals place so much emphasis on sex? Almost every heterosexual movie or television show or book has some kind of kissing or sex in it. Is that all you people think about?
11. Just what do men and women do in bed together anyway? How can they truly know how to please each other, being so anatomically different?
12. The prevailing myth is that gays are child molesters, but the fact remains that an overwhelming, disproportionate majority of child molesters are heterosexuals. Do you think that it is safe to expose children to heterosexual teachers? Under these circumstances, should heterosexuals be allowed to adopt?
13. Why are there so few stable relationships among heterosexuals? Why would you want to enter such an unstable relationship?
14. How can you become a whole person if you limit yourself to compulsive, exclusive heterosexuality?
15. There seem to be very few happy heterosexuals. Therapeutic techniques have been developed that might possibly allow you to change if you really want to repress every basic instinct that you have. Have you considered trying aversion therapy in order to become gay?
16. Would you want your child to become heterosexual, knowing the problems that he or she would face?
