

What Can NAADAC Do for Your Organization?

Organizational Membership

Join NAADAC as an Organizational Member and help brand your organization and strengthen its image around the country. Organizational Members receive:

- A listing in NAADAC's online Organizational Member Directory, available to the public.
- Discounts to advertise in NAADAC's bi-weekly Addiction & Recovery eNews (sent to 48,000+ addiction professionals) and at NAADAC's Annual Conference and other events.
- $100 discount on NAADAC Approved Education Provider applications.
- And much more!

Individual Memberships for Staff

NAADAC Organizational Members receive a $20 discount on each individual NAADAC Membership purchased for your staff. The benefits of NAADAC Individual Memberships include:

- Access to over 145 hours of FREE CEs (worth $2,175) through NAADAC's Online Webinar Series, available on demand 24 hours per day/7 days a week.
- Reduced rates on all NAADAC publications and independent study courses, including the three modules of Basics of Addiction Counseling Desk Reference and the new Clinical Supervision: An Overview of Functions, Processes, and Methodology.
- Reduced rates for NAADAC sponsored conferences, public policy events, regional meetings, and workshops.
- And much more!

NCC AP National Credentials

National credentials tell third-party payers, government entities, other practitioners, and the public that your practitioners are qualified and have met national competency standards. Employees who are NCC AP certified receive:

- Recognition for having in-depth knowledge, proven work experience, competence, and dedication to the addiction profession.
- Increased reimbursement rates.
- And much more!

Staff Training & Development

NAADAC can also partner with your organization to provide education, training, and professional development to enhance your staff's knowledge level, skill set, and competencies, and provide continuous education to your credentialed professionals. Training includes:

- Online education through NAADAC's Free Online Webinar Series and Specialty Online Trainings, and access to NAADAC's digital magazine Advances in Addiction & Recovery.
- Access to a HIPAA-compliant telehealth platform through NAADAC's telebehavioral health partnership and free NAADAC webinars on telehealth/telecounseling.
- In-person education through NAADAC's Annual Conference, regional and state trainings and conferences, and customized trainings with NAADAC trainers.
- Independent study courses such as the Basics of Addiction Counseling Desk Reference, a three-volume set that has aided many addiction professionals in attaining their credentials.
- And much more!
